

COURSE OUTLINE

The best trainers and facilitators are those who understand how learners learn and can take full responsibility for their role in structuring logical, practical and engaging training as a result.

The skills and knowledge learnt within this program will support the participant to develop more effective communication, and deliver effective training in forums such as classroom, one-on-one or on-the-job training.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course participants will be able to:

- > Demonstrate application of adult learning principles in both the design and delivery of content so that learners engage fully
- > Develop highly impactful messaging when delivering any form of communication
- > Build stories and examples that simplify concepts and create memory prompts for learners
- > Respond to questions and answers so that learners are more willing to speak up and more open to group discussion and peer feedback
